Your Light Is in My Heart

Original Lyrics & Music : Wang Tzu Kuang
English Interpretation: Lau Huici

Dawn breaks the night and the morning sunrise.
Rays of sun light the land.
This is Her Grace, sending Her love, sending rays of gentle love.
Leading our way to a beautiful day.
Shining wonder and hope into our life.
Golden sunrays in the end of the day.
It's Your Grace of eternal love in our world.

Night brings the gentle soft moonlight that cradles
through the night.
Soothing our heart with the songs in Your arms,
And sleep a sweet dream away.

Starlight, the brilliant stars, they're the eyes of Your Grace
Watching over us, and caring for us.
In the dark of night
You are always with us,
Your Grace is always with us.

Your Light is in my heart!
Your Light is in my heart!
Our days are blessed with
Your beautiful love.
We are never alone.
Never alone.

Life is blessed with Your Light,
Your Love and Your Grace.

The Significance of Life

The significance of life is to bring about the Maitreya Pureland so that all sentient beings can share the survival, glory, abundance, joy, serenity, enlightenment, possession, gain, prosperity, and achievement together.

The dignity and sanctity of life is equal among all humans. The life of the president and the lives of the citizens are of equal value and respectability. So is the worthiness of the lives of the rich and the poor. Therefore we cannot care only about our own survival; we must not neglect others' lives. The stronger and more powerful should not defeat the weaker thus taking away their space or rights to survive. Neither should the stronger build their survival upon others' pain and struggles. God granted every being the right to survive. Therefore it is not the will of our conscience to deprive others of their lives.

The sanctity of everyone's life should be honored. The same respect must also be applied to all animals. No one has the right to control or manipulate another's chance of survival. Humans, animals, the animated or the unanimated should co-exist together with harmony and prosperity. The arrival of the Pureland, a Heaven on Earth, The Kingdom of Maitreya will bring mutual survival, honor, glory, peace, realization, prosperity, and achievement for all of us. This is the significance of life on Earth.
